Russ Paper Believes We Can Have Peace

States Reds, Capitalists May Co-Exist

Moscow, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Izvestia reviewed today the theme that Soviet "peace policy" is based on the belief that Communist and capitalist systems can exist side by side in the world.

The Soviet government newspaper emphasized the view by quoting from both Prime Minister Stalin and Nikolai Lenin, the father of the Soviet Union, in a three column front page article. Izvestia is the official organ of the presidium of the supreme Soviet. It is edited by a board responsible to the presidium.

The statement that Russia believes in the co-existence of Communism and capitalism has been stressed frequently here of late. Izvestia linked its statements with the assertion that the western powers are waging propaganda and taking practical measures for war. This is so particularly in American and British policies on the atomic question, it said.

Only Russia For Peace
(The Izvestia piece appeared to be a new propaganda effort to present the Soviet Union as the world's sole warrior for peace. This may have as its object the driving of a wedge between the major western powers and their small-nation supporters, anxious to grasp for any tokens of peace.)

(The latest repetition of an old theme coincides with the climactic debate on the atomic question in the United Nations assembly. As it happened, Izvestia also printed the article on the day that the Quaker organization, the American Friends service committee which won the 1947 Nobel peace prize, released in Philadelphia a plan for the U.N. to sponsor a standstill agreement on production of atomic bombs. The Philadelphia inquirer reported some circles are proposing that Dr. Ralph Bunche, who won a reputation as a peacemaker in Palestine, be made U.S. ambassador to Moscow.)

Puzzling To Outsiders
(Soviet repetitions of the theme that communism and capitalism can dwell peacefully side by side are always puzzling to people outside Russia when they are compared with the contradictory writings of both Stalin and Lenin. Only recently the Soviet Press gave what appeared to be significant prominence to the 1928 writings of Stalin in which he declared the capitalist world would never allow a Communist Soviet Union to live in peace. In 1920 Lenin wrote that, "as long as capitalism and socialism exist, we cannot live in peace. In the end, one or the other will triumph.")
Izvestia underlined the talk Stalin had with Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, in April 1947, in which Stalin declared, "I adhere to Lenin, who expressed both the possibility and the desire of cooperation" between the two economic systems.

The same idea is stressed in the current issue of new times, the publications devoted to international affairs. The writer A. Leonidov declared the statement that the Soviet Union does not believe in the co-existence of the two systems is a "stupid, dishonest lie."

Favors Newspapers Voluntarily Giving Up Mail 'Subsidies'

Washington, Nov. 23.—(AP)—A CIO official said today he would favor newspapers and magazines giving up their government mail "subsidies" if they did so voluntarily.

Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) said last week that those publications should forego special mail rates in order to help balance the federal budget. Today Douglas asked for comment on the idea from Stanley H. Ruttenberg, director of research and education for the CIO. Ruttenberg said he was a witness before a Senate subcommittee studying government fiscal, monetary and credit policy. Douglas is chairman of the group. He said he was not sure whether Douglas expected an answer "in front of these reporters." At first the witness said he preferred not to discuss the matter because the CIO had not studied it.

Then, when Douglas persisted, Ruttenberg said he would be for the senator's suggestion. If the newspapers and magazines gave up their special rates voluntarily.

FAILS TO DEATH

East St. Louis, Ill., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Alfred R. Smallenberger, 61-year-old carpenter, fell to his death yesterday into a big vat containing a caustic solution. The man, who lived at 1000 N. DuPont, slipped through an opening in the roof of the Aluminum Ore Co. building here.

Nationalists Prepare To Abandon Chungking

Chungking, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The Chinese government today streamlined itself and prepared to abandon Chungking and follow its armies as they moved to within 70 miles of the city.

Just when the signal to quit Chungking would be given seemed to be up to the oncoming Communists. If they kept thrusting from the northeast, east and south the hour may come soon.

The defense ministry admitted the Reds had laid siege to Wolung only 70 miles to the east. (This puts them 25 miles nearer Chungking than they were 24 hours earlier.)

The ministry said other red troops moving up the Yangtze valley were near Chungking, 140 miles north-east of Chungking.

Private reports said the Communists from the south already had taken Tsunyi. This city is 120 miles south of Chungking. Between it and Chungking the road is good and not very mountainous.

Premier Yen Hsi-Shan's announcement that a small mobile cabinet was being set up was the first clear indication that the government was preparing to abandon Chungking. The capital will be wherever this cabinet is functioning.

Acting President Li Tsung-Jen still is in Hong Kong and on the outs with Chiang Kai-Shek. Chiang, who is here, has been trying to get Li to return.

Each ministry in the mobile cabinet will have no more than 100 employees. Yen said offices would be established at an undisclosed place in the rear to keep the archives and handle routine business.

It is expected this will be Taipei, capital of the nationalist island fortress of Formosa off the southeast coast.

It was estimated Yen's order will throw 10,000 government employees out of jobs. He said they could quit or accept defense work in rear areas. They were promised severance pay if they quit.

Several ministries, including that of overseas affairs, will be left out of the mobile cabinet. They presumably will be in the rear area.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 23.—(AP)—An official of the Peoria Charter Coach company testified today his firm lost $7,000 the first half of this year in bus operations between Peoria and LaSalle.

The figure was given by Walter Winkler of Lacon, company president, at an Illinois Commerce commission hearing on a petition for increases in short haul fares.

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 23.—(AP)—James T. Whitley Jr., Decatur lawyer and World War II veteran, is considering seeking the Democratic nomination for congress from the 22nd district.

Mrs. Olive Remington Goldman, Urbana, the 1948 Democratic nominee, also is reported considering running again.

The incumbent, Rep. Rolla McMillen (R-Decatur), is retiring because of ill health. County Judge William L. Springer of Champaign has announced his candidacy for the GOP nomination.

Dr. Quinn, Ill., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Nancy Louvier, 15, who had been missing from her home in Tamaroa, Ill., since last Wednesday night, was found at the home of her father, George Louvier of East Alton, State's Attorney P. Mark Miller reported yesterday.

Miller said the girl told him she wanted to return to the Good Shepherd home in St. Louis, where she formerly lived for two years.

She had been living with her mother, Mrs. Walter Pyron of Tamaroa.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Because they stole 488 cases of canned beans, four men were placed on probation for two years today.

Edward Buska, 35, Harold Black, 23, William Kadish, 32, and Alvin Weber, 34, pleaded guilty in felony court and promised to pay for the beans—$2,094, at the rate of $20 a month apiece.

The beans were taken from a warehouse of the Campbell Soup company over a period of several weeks. The four defendants said they didn't eat the beans; Weber sold them.

Illinois News Briefs

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad said today the 12 1/2 per cent increase in railroad passenger fares recently authorized by the Interstate Commerce commission, will not be applied to its service.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The count of noses at the Race kindergarten didn't jibe with the right answer. So the teacher called the cops to figure it out.

The cops subtracted one (from school) and carried one (home), thus solving the problem.

The difference was Cathy Winder, 20 months old. She had slipped away from home and toddled off to school with older children yesterday.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The Cook county (Chicago) coroner's office today ordered a thorough investigation of the death of George W. Fawell, 62, of Dexter, Mo., dairy owner, mortgage banker and real estate broker.

Fawell was killed yesterday when he toppled down a flight of concrete stairs leading to a North Clark street bathroom. Police said that thus far they have not found any witnesses who actually saw Fawell fall.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 23.—(AP)—An official of the Peoria Charter Coach company testified today his firm lost $7,000 the first half of this year in bus operations between Peoria and LaSalle.

The figure was given by Walter Winkler of Lacon, company president, at an Illinois Commerce commission hearing on a petition for increases in short haul fares.

Says Pigeon May Have Started Fire In State Capitol

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 23.—(AP)—The possibility that a pigeon carrying a lit cigarette may have caused the fire in the state capitol yesterday is being investigated by the State Fire Marshal's office.

"We're not overlooking that possibility," said Frank Kessberger, assistant fire marshal. "There are a lot of pigeons around the statehouse and they sometimes do things like that."

The fire occurred between the roof and ceiling in the west wing of the fourth floor. Damage was estimated at $600.

An earlier theory that workmen using blow torches may have started the fire was discarded. Peter F. Resister, statehouse superintendent, said there were no workmen in the burned section.

Northwestern Bell Phone Head Dies

Omaha, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Russell J. Hopley, 54, president of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company, died at a hospital here this afternoon after an illness of about two weeks.

Hopley was appointed U.S. civil defense director in March, 1948, and served nine months. During that time he drew up a plan for civil preparedness in the event of emergencies such as war and regional or national catastrophes such as floods.

A native of Blue Island, Ill., he became president of the five-state Northwestern Bell firm in 1942.

Consul Ward Released And Ordered Out By Commies

Russia Says Nationals Have No Right To Represent China In UN

New York, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Russia called the Chinese nationalist delegation a bunch of pygmies today and said Moscow no longer recognizes their right to represent China in the United Nations.

Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Prime Minister Stalin's top diplomat, told the 59-nation General Assembly the nationalists here couldn't represent China even if they wanted to because — he said — 350,000,000 of China's 450,000,000 people have recognized the communist regime headed by Mao Tze-Tung in Peking.

Chieh-Hou Kan, personal adviser to Li Tsung-Jen, acting president of the nationalist government, said the nationalists here couldn't represent China even if they wanted to because — he said — 350,000,000 of China's 450,000,000 people have recognized the communist regime headed by Mao Tze-Tung in Peking.

Li Tsung-Jen, acting president of the nationalist government, said the nationalists here couldn't represent China even if they wanted to because — he said — 350,000,000 of China's 450,000,000 people have recognized the communist regime headed by Mao Tze-Tung in Peking.

He told the Soviet foreign minister that God and the conscience of the world will indict Russia even if the nationalists lose their seat at the U. N.

The heated exchange occurred at Flushing Meadow as an offshoot of debate on proposals for banning atomic bombs and for control of atomic energy by international agreement.

Philippine President Fears Fighting May Be Revolt

U.S. Excuses Russ Trading Agency From Paying Fine

Washington, Nov. 23.—(AP)—American Soviet trading agency was fined $10,000 today for violation of the foreign agents registration act, but was excused from paying it. Charges against six top Amtorg officials were dismissed.

A brief session in the courtroom of Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff closed the books on an indictment returned by a grand jury here Oct. 21. The State department had an important hand in the speedy disposition of the case.

George Morris Fay, U.S. district attorney, who spoke for the government, said the State department "believes that the best interests of the United States in the conduct of its foreign affairs will best be served by the dismissal of the indictment against the individual defendants."

John F. Floberg Is Named Assistant Secretary Of Navy

Washington, Nov. 23.—(AP)—John F. Floberg, Chicago lawyer and wartime navy gunnery officer, today was named assistant secretary of the navy for air.

President Truman gave Floberg a recess appointment which is subject to confirmation by the Senate when congress reconvenes.

Floberg, 34, succeeds to the vacancy created when Dan A. Kimball was elevated to undersecretary of the navy.

The defense department issued a biography which said Floberg volunteered for the navy a month before Pearl Harbor and went to sea in 1943 as executive officer of a submarine chaser, which he later commanded in the North Africa, Sicilian and Salerno operations.

Later he served in the Philippines, the Iwo Jima and Okinawa campaigns and in raids by the U.S. fleet on Japan.

Before he went on inactive duty June 11, 1946, he had been promoted to lieutenant commander.

Navy Secretary Matthews' office has said Floberg is a brother-in-law of Matthews' daughter-in-law.

Will Give Turkey Dinners To Those Stranded At U Of I

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Paul Brown, owner of a restaurant which caters to University of Illinois students, said today he'll lay 400 free turkey dinners on the line tomorrow, "no strings attached."

Brown said he wants students to eat the free dinners, especially those who can't get home for Thanksgiving.

"I know how miserable it is to be away from home on a holiday, and maybe this will ease that feeling," he said.

Classes at the University of Illinois ended at noon today, and most of the student body went home for the holiday.

Government Army Joins In Battle South Of Manila

Manila, Nov. 23.—(AP)—President Elpidio Quirino today declared the fighting south of Manila might be "an organized effort to upset the government" and the situation was "very serious."

Quirino also was confronted with the resignation of former President Sergio Osmena from the Philippine Council of State in protest to the administration's handling of the recent presidential elections.

Manila's Mayor Manuel De La Fuente requested citizens to stay off the streets after 8 p.m. Fears were expressed in some official quarters that the armed outbreak 60 miles to the south might spread to Manila.

Quirino reported the Philippine army had joined the constabulary in the battle against an estimated 600 dissidents. Artillery was brought up against the rebels, who had mortars and machineguns.

Quirino said the leaders of the dissidents included persons who were being hunted for the slaying on election day of Mayor Roman Perez of Batangas. Perez was a leader in Quirino's Liberal party.

The president indicated at a press conference that these fugitives had united with the communist-led Hukbalahaps. These armed bands have been in revolt since the end of the war, ostensibly because they want land reforms.

Quirino expressed confidence that the rebels, who so far have killed 12 of the constabulary and wounded numerous others, would be suppressed.

"I don't know," he said, "if these people merely are trying to escape arrest or whether they have a more serious purpose."

"If the latter, then it represents an organized effort to upset the government of the Philippines," Osmena, the only living former president of the Philippines, made his announcement of resignation at Cebu City in an interview with Spencer Davis, Associated Press bureau chief.

Osmena said that in his opinion the people of Cebu had been intimidated by bands of armed special police when they went to the polls Nov. 8. The police were led by Gov. Manuel Cuenca of Cebu, one of Quirino's Liberal party leaders.

Chicago Teachers Demand Wage Hike For Coming Year

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Demands for wage increases for 1950 were presented to the board of education today by some 8,400 teachers in Chicago's elementary and high schools.

The AFL Chicago Teachers union asked that wages of elementary teachers be boosted $700 a year and that of high school teachers $840.

John Fawcett, president of the union, said the 1950 demands are identical with those made for 1949. The union now is asking that salaries for elementary teachers be raised from the present minimum of $2,500 to $3,200 and the maximum from $4,300 to $5,000. It asks that the minimum for high school instructors be upped from a minimum of $3,000 to $3,840, and the maximum from $5,160 to $6,000.

Big Five Powers, Canada Will Try For Atomic Curbs

New York, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The United Nations assembly decided tonight to have the five big powers and Canada try again to break the East-West deadlock on atomic energy control.

The 59-nation assembly called on these six permanent members of the U. N. atomic energy commission to continue their private consultations and explore any possibility for an accord.

The vote was 49 to 5, with three abstentions. Only the Soviet bloc opposed the plan. The Russians insisted that the full 11-nation atomic commission should resume its work immediately.

Yugoslavia, Israel and South Africa abstained.

The assembly rejected a Soviet resolution which would have blamed the United States and Britain for the atomic stalemate and declared the private six-power consultations proposed by the assembly in Paris last year, had failed to find a solution.

Assembly President Carlos P. Romulo agreed with U. S. Assistant Secretary of State John D. Hickerson and other western delegates that prospects for an atomic agreement were dim.

Feldman Cheats Death Third Time In Murder Trial

New York, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Benjamin Feldman cheated death in Sing Sing's electric chair for a third time tonight when a jury cleared him in the 1943 poisoning of his pregnant wife.

The 41-year-old druggist was found innocent by an all-jury jury that debated more than 15 hours to reach a verdict.

Feldman spent two tense years in Sing Sing's death row awaiting his call to execution after he was convicted twice before of the slaying.

But the Court of Appeals twice reversed the prior convictions and gave him a new chance at life.

Said Kings county Judge Carmine J. Marasco: "I do not usually comment on a jury's action, but I think the verdict was entirely within their province and their conscience."

The jury returned its verdict at 7:54 p.m. (CST), 27 hours after getting the case at the end of Feldman's third trial, which lasted six weeks.

U. Of I. Student Found Down South

Louisville, Ill., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Don Lee Bunnell, 19, University of Illinois student who was reported missing since Nov. 1, is working at a New Orleans hotel (the Roosevelt).

The father, Robert Bunnell, a Louisville druggist, said he received a letter from his son today but that the son gave no reason for leaving the university.

U.S. Tells Him To Bring Staff Home

Washington, Nov. 23.—(AP)—American Consul General Angus Ward, held for a month in a Communist jail at Mukden, China, has been released and ordered to leave the country, the state department announced today.

Four consulate employees jailed with Ward also were freed. A Communist "people's court" convicted them along with Ward but decreed that they too be deported.

The State department, which has indignantly denounced the treatment of the American official as "barbaric," immediately relayed instructions to Ward to get out of Mukden and bring his entire staff with him—"forthwith."

Came With Speed
This latest action in the sensational case which has attracted world attention came with lightning speed after the 56-year-old diplomat himself reported that his four weeks imprisonment had ended in a Communist conviction and deportation order.

He added that he and the four consulate employees arrested, held, convicted and ordered along with him were able to be "up and about." All have returned to their homes in the consulate compound in Mukden, he said.

While top State department officials felt that their first objective has been gained with the physical freedom of the five men from prison, they were maintaining an anxious watch of incoming telegrams for first word that the Communists actually are making arrangements to get Ward and his people out of town.

12 U.S. Officials
There are 12 American officials and at least two Europeans, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Shiro Tatsu, the Japanese wife of a Japanese-American employed by Ward. The Tatusis are reported to have four children with them in Mukden.

The first big break in the case since the consul general was arrested on October 24 came in mid-November when the State department announced it had received word that the Communists had finished their trial of Ward and his associates and that they had been released from jail. Ward immediately telephoned American Consul General O. Edmund Clubb at Peking and Clubb rushed a dispatch to the State department.

Important details of the international incident remained to be filled in. Ward hasn't had a chance to tell his side of the story. The Communists charged him with beating a Chinese employee of the consulate. State department officials have insisted that the charge was trumped up.

With important information lacking, there were as yet no precise answers to other momentous questions. It could not be ascertained immediately whether the Chinese Communists had rushed the Ward case to a conclusion in response to increasing pressures of world public opinion, or whether Russia had intervened, or whether Secretary of State Acheson's appeal to 30 nations for concerted action had given some indirect help.

Armour Announces Signing Contract With 40,000 Men

Chicago, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Armour & Company, one of the nation's four largest meat packing firms, today reported signing a new contract with two unions representing nearly 40,000 workers.

Terms of the agreement were not made public and depend on expected ratification by the workers. The terms are expected to be patterned after the agreement Swift & Company signed Oct. 14 with the unions.

The unions are the CIO United Packinghouse Workers, with 25,000 workers in 21 Armour plants, and the AFL Amalgamated meat cutters, with 10,000 to 15,000 workers in 13 plants.

The new contract would run until Aug. 11, 1950. It is reported unofficially to contain no blanket wage increase, but to include benefits in the form of rate changes in various worker classifications.

The queen and her vivacious 19-year-old daughter sat in the front row at a performance of Benjamin Britten's "Let's Make an Opera." The audience is supposed to sing along with the cast in this work.

The royal visit was a surprise to the cast. King George had gone to a law society dinner and Princess Elizabeth was in Malta visiting her husband, Prince Philip.

Government Seizes Business Offices In Buenos Aires

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Nov. 23 —(P)— A two-man congressional committee seized control of the business offices of the three remaining independent newspapers and the communist organ La Hora in Buenos Aires today.

Auditors were set to work at La Nacion and La Prensa, both widely known dailies, La Hora, and the tabloid Clarin, whose editor, Dr. Roberto Noble, recently toured the United States as a guest of the U. S. state department.

The committee men said they were seeking to learn whether money was paid the newspapers by a coalition of parties which unsuccessfully opposed the election of Juan D. Peron to the presidency in 1946. Peronistas control both houses of the Argentine congress.

The two congressmen first descended dramatically on the offices of La Prensa, one of the wealthiest newspapers in Latin America and a critic of Peron. They were accompanied by about a dozen policemen and the same number of newspaper photographers. They formally took control of all administrative operations.

May Pleads Old Age In Attempt To Avert Jail Term

Washington, Nov. 23 —(P)— Former Rep. Andrew J. May (D-Ky.) today pleaded old age, poverty and a severe heart ailment in a new attempt to escape being sent to prison for wartime bribery and conspiracy.

Contending that the condition of his health is "serious" and that he is "practically penniless," May petitioned the U.S. District Court:

1. To reduce his eight to 24 months sentence.
2. To suspend him new, lesser sentence imposed.
3. To grant him probation.

If the petition is denied, the last resort would be a direct appeal to President Truman for a pardon.

Similar petitions were filed on behalf of May's co-defendants, Murray A. and Henry Garsson, the munitions-making brothers who were convicted of passing $53,000 in bribes to the former congressman for helping them to get war contracts.

May was chairman of the old House military affairs committee at the time of the alleged conspiracy during World War II.

MAYBE MORE OF US SHOULD VISIT EUROPE

Morgan county is a wonderful community, but we are inclined to be smug about our blessings. We accept them as our own, something due to us, rather than something for which we should be grateful and thankful for.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Applebee recently returned from Europe. They didn't like what they saw there. They've followed carefully the progress of this year's drive for the six deserving organizations grouped in the Community Chest drive. Progress has been slow.

They didn't like that either.

They remembered what they saw in Europe. Wednesday they gave $1,000 to the Community Chest.

Will other public-spirited citizens follow Dr. and Mrs. Applebee's generous example? Will we see to it that our Community Chest does not fail this year?

THESE BLESSINGS SHOULD INSPIRE A PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Looking about them, the people of the United States see that they have much to be thankful for.

They live in a country that never in modern times has been trampled by a foreign foe. In the great wars they have fought, it was the lands of other peoples that suffered ruin.

Though with the atom bomb, the guided missile and the long-range bomber this nation is no longer the safe island it once was, America is still a land that cannot be easily and quickly overrun by an invading horde. The shadow of a potential enemy does not loom large—as it does in Europe.

Too, Americans live in a country whose leaders will start no wars. We will fight to defend ourselves and our friends, but we will launch no "preventive" attacks on others. Even when our strength is an overwhelming force in the world, we will use it to preserve peace rather than to dominate or destroy.

But of course neither our power, our geographical position nor our will to peace can make us really secure from war today. All we can say is that we have more to be grateful for in this uncertain time than do Frenchmen, or Britishers, or Russians or Chinese.

The American people can also feel gratitude that their nation has the greatest material wealth of any on earth. The United States is not free of poverty and distress, but it has less of them than most countries and it does not view them complacently. Prosperity—a high standard of living—is no less a goal than peace.

Americans may count themselves lucky on a third score. Freer than most from the threat of war and economic want, they likewise enjoy greater liberties in the political and spiritual fields. They may speak and write and worship and vote pretty much as they wish. Not in many corners of the world are these privileges any longer untarnished.

So long as people in this country can continue to count these blessings, they will have cause to utter grateful prayer on Thanksgiving Day.

Never Do A Woman A Favor

By Hal Boyle

New York — Ph—The main thing wrong with American womanhood is women.

A man who tries to do these forlorn daughters of Eve a favor is just a moon calf. It always backfires on him.

Particularly is a mere man foolish to try to give them an advice in the magic realm of love. Herewith is a postmortem on a little attempt I made:

Knowing that I am a woman's whole existence, I checked to see if I couldn't find them a short-cut in this field to save wear and tear on their claws.

My inquiry disclosed that — Dr. Kinsey to the contrary—the greatest lovers are men in their 40s. This truth was confirmed by Dorothy Dix and the fact that the eight top-drawing male film stars are all 40 plus.

You would think that its discovery would be hailed by the ladies as a great timesaver for them.

But what happens?

My research reaped only a crop of feminine cataclysms of derision. I space for only two.

Jeered a widow in Hutchinson, Kan.:

"Romantic old devils nothing — they're conceived old puppies."

"The 40 to 50-year-old Addy with the cash might have a chance. But he'd be lucky if he found one young girl in a hard row of stumps to make the sacrifice and put up with his indigestion, bad breath" — please, lady! — "false teeth, bald head and a dozen other ailments."

And the dear old widow concluded joyously:

"Daddy, oh Daddy, I know what I is talking about. I took a couple of old pot bellies to a good cleaning myself when I was a bewitching young lady. Print this and give the old pot bellies something to think about."

An equal hoot came from a 34-year-old wife in Ashland, Ky., who said her husband was 33 "and I wouldn't wish him to be one day older."

"Just where you old men get the idea you are attractive is a mystery to me."

"Let me tell you why the popular men film stars are over 40. These men are made up to look young, they are excellent actors and they don't have bald heads and potbellies. And, last but not least, the girls don't have to touch their loose, flabby cheeks."

(Editor's note: she has you there, Boyle.)

And the Ashland wife wound up thus:

"Don't ever think any young girl marries an old man for his sex appeal. It is always for his dollars or acres appeal. The sooner men find this out, the happier they will be."

All I can say to these ladies—go bark at Vice President Barkley, dearies. Who is in Shangri-La today—you or the widow from Missouri?

Pontiac Club Honors Teacher

Chandlerville—Mrs. Edward Leinberger, teacher at the Pontiac school, was honored with a shower given for her by the Pontiac Community club at its regular meeting.

The program for the evening included group singing vocal selections by Neal Claussen and Loretta Wiedman; piano solo by Arnold Gerdes; Melvin Deering and Irving Fry; vocal duet, Beverly Murphy and Jean Hittell; and songs by Verna Eilers, Shirley Edge and Mrs. Edward Lienberger.

The committee in charge was comprised of Mrs. Alva Gerdes, Mrs. LaVerne Eilers and Mrs. Russell Garmon.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

BEEF TASTERS END WITH TONGUES IN CHEEKS

Davis, Calif. —(P)—You would think that 26 experts all sitting around tasting roast beef would develop definite opinions on the subject. However, that many at the College of Agriculture recently sampled rib roasts from three different kinds of cattle and said at the end that it was a good dinner. Comparing for taste and tenderness were rib roasts from Hereford, Brahma and Brador cattle. The last is a crossbreed.

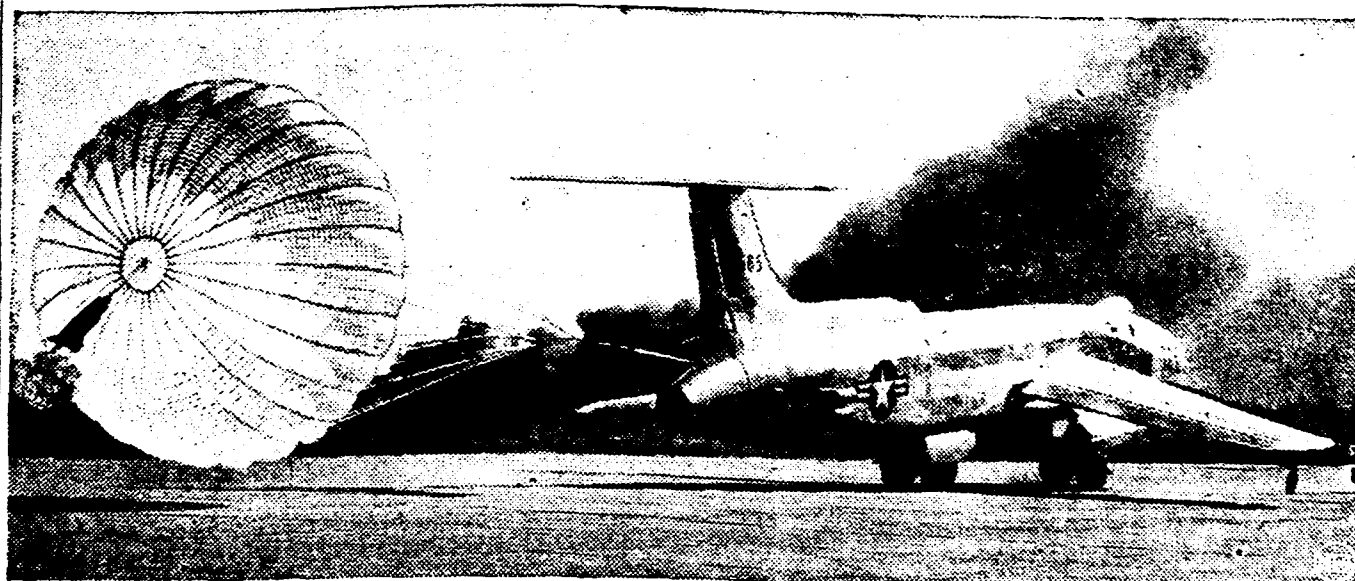

Work Progresses On New Road In Scott County

Glasgow—Work on the new road running west from Glasgow to the state road along the bluffs, is progressing steadily, being favored thus far by good weather.

A short Thanksgiving program was given during the regular Sunday school hour at the local Christian church Sunday morning. The program numbers include music, songs, readings and recitations.

Sweet potatoes offer lots of nourishment for dinner menus. They are rich sources of vitamin and furnish worthwhile quantities of vitamin C. They also contribute small amounts of the B vitamins and minerals.

PARACHUTE "STOPPER" FOR AIR FORCE'S NEWEST JET—This is the first picture released by the Air Force to show the unique parachute braking technique used on the new Martin XB-51 three-jet ground support bomber. The powerful swept-back wing bomber, seen landing at Baltimore, Md., made its first flight on Oct. 28. The parachute, stowed aft for use at the pilot's discretion, enables the plane to land on smaller fields. For taking off in short space, it is equipped with the jet-assisted take-off device.

Miss Leona Fricke Weds Earl Lovekamp

Couple Exchange Vows In Church Near Arenzville

In a candlelight ceremony held Sunday, Nov. 20, at 4 o'clock at Immanuel Lutheran church near Arenzville, Miss Leona Fricke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loran Fricke of Arenzville, became the bride of Earl Lovekamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lovekamp, also of Arenzville.

Before an altar banked with ferns and baskets of chrysanthemums and pom poms, Rev. J. Schlichting performed the double-ring ceremony. The front pews were decorated with white satin ribbons.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Leonard Staake, cousin of the bridegroom, presented a 15 minute recital of organ music, which included Schubert's "Serenade," "Song of Autumn" by Lawrence Sullivan, "Lost Chord" and "Evening Star" by Wagner. She also accompanied Miss Vera Kay Fricke, sister of the bride, who sang "O Perfect Love" and Mrs. Richard Drake, cousin of the bride, who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was attended by Miss Melba Fricke, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Miss LaVerne Lovekamp, sister of the bridegroom, who served as bridesmaid. Wilbur Lovekamp served his brother as best man and Hubert Fricke, cousin of both the bride and bridegroom, was groomsmen. Ushers were Delmar Lovekamp, brother of the bridegroom and Leroy Fricke, cousin of the bride.

Wears Ivory White Gown
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory-white slipper satin, the bodice of which was fashioned with a Chantilly lace bertha, creating an off-the-shoulder effect, from a yoke of illusion, fastened down the back with tiny self-covered buttons. The sleeves were long and pointed over the hands, and the full skirt terminated into a long flowing train edged with Chantilly lace. The finger tip-trail of net, also edged with Chantilly lace, was held in place by a beaded coronet. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace, gift of the bridegroom.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white pom poms and garlands of white carnations with satin streamers knotted with button mums. She also carried the handkerchief that was carried by her mother at her wedding.

The crowns of the attendants were designed similar to that of the bride's. The maid of honor was attired in a gown of green taffeta, while the bridesmaid wore orchard taffeta. They wore long mitts corresponding to the color of their gowns. The maid of honor carried an arm bouquet of orchid pom poms tied with a yellow satin ribbon; the bridesmaid carried an arm bouquet of yellow pom poms tied with a green satin ribbon. Each wore matching flowers in their hair. Vera Kay wore yellow taffeta and Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Staake were attired in pink. Each wore corsages of yellow and pink carnations.

Mothers in Gray
Both mothers wore gray street-length dresses with black accessories. Their corsages were of red roses and white pom poms. Mrs. Louise Buescher, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Lena Roegge, grandmother of the groom, wore black dresses and corsages of pale pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception for 115 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. A four-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom, together with lighted tapers decorated the bride's table. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Wilbert Fricke, Miss Lorna Fricke, Mrs. Theodore Staake and Mrs. Louis Hoffmeier. Misses Bernice Kormeyer and Charlene Hammond opened the wedding gifts.

As the couple left for their wedding trip the bride was wearing a gray crepe dress, a green coat, with gray accessories and a corsage of red gardenia roses.

The bride graduated from Meredosia high school with the class of 1947 and the bridegroom with the class of 1945. Following their wedding trip, they will reside near Meredosia, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

Kezbers Is "Very Glad" To Become Morgan Resident

After nine months in Morgan county, Fricis Kezbers is "very, very glad he came," and is trying to push into the inner recesses of his mind scenes of brutality he experienced in Russia and German slave labor camps.

Speaking to the Optimist club Tuesday night at Hamilton's cafe, the former Latvian said he is making good headway in becoming an American citizen. Good food, freedom to do as he pleases in his spare time, and peaceful surroundings have put Kezbers, once a frail displaced person, on his feet.

Kezbers, who speaks better English all the time, because he studies and reads it, lives on the Applebee farm west of the city with his wife and two children. The family was assisted in coming to this country by Dr. and Mrs. Applebee.

Although he is now employed as a dairy and agricultural worker, Kezbers had experience in clerking before the Russians invaded Latvia. He and his wife were in a German work camp four years before General Patton's army moved in and caused their release.

Kezbers is serious in his intent to become a good American. He says he is grateful to this country for giving him and his family refuge. He speaks six languages, but is working hard to perfect his English.

Kezbers was introduced by Attorney Andrew Ormiston, and Rev. Frank Janssen presided at the meeting.

Coach Ray Eliot Of U. Of I. Will Address Kiwanis Grid Dinner

Coach Ray Eliot of the University of Illinois, whose "Fighting Illini" command respect throughout the football world, is coming back to Jacksonville on Thursday, Dec. 1, to greet old friends and deliver a talk at the annual Kiwanis club football banquet.

Eliot, who moved from Illinois College in this city to the U. of I. as line coach, and then into Bob Zuppke's shoes as head coach, will be guest of honor at a dinner to be held at the Dunlap hotel. Other guests will include all the lettermen of the four Jacksonville football teams—Illinois College, Jacksonville High school, Routt High school and the Illinois School for the Deaf.

COACH RAY ELIOT

Eliot had many stubborn obstacles to overcome before taking over as Illinois' head grid coach in 1942. He was to experience many more difficulties before finally establishing himself in the nation's coaching ranks.

In his early athletic career, Ray had to fight handicaps such as poor eyesight and the fact he was self-supporting in order to obtain a college education.

Played Guard For Illinois
Eliot first went to Illinois as a student in 1928 for four years of study.

in athletic coaching and physical education. He managed to maintain a good scholarship record and win varsity letters in football and baseball. In 1931, his last season as an Illinois, Ohio State players named Eliot the best guard they had faced all year.

After graduating from Illinois, Eliot was named assistant football coach at Illinois college in Jacksonville. Later, as head coach, his teams won 22 conference games in four years, while losing four and tying one. He also served as baseball coach and compiled a record of 71 wins, 9 defeats.

In the fall of 1937 Eliot returned to the U. of I. as one of Zuppke's line coaches. He also acted as assistant baseball coach and head hockey coach. Five years later he replaced Zuppke.

By concentrating on detail and inspiring his squad with the "fighting heart," his first Illinois team upset mighty Minnesota and finished the season with a .600 winning percentage in the Big Ten. Since then Eliot has added through personality and leadership, a solid character to his teams which has developed respect of other conference schools.

After the 1942 season Eliot was hampered by the effects of war on college football material. He was forced to work with young and inexperienced players who were constantly shifting from school to school. But in 1946 the veterans returned and with them came the long overdue freshmen. With this material Eliot fashioned a squad which brought Illinois its first Big Nine championship in 18 years, and then went on to rout a highly favored UCLA eleven, 45 to 14, in the Rose Bowl classic.

Loses Veterans In '47
The champions lost many veterans for the 1947 season, but ended the schedule in a three-way tie for third place in the standings. Eliot's 1947 team battled Army to a scoreless tie in New York's Yankee Stadium, and lost to Conference Champion Michigan by only one touchdown.

Last fall Ray was again faced with an inexperienced team. Yet it lived up to Fighting Illini traditions. In the Army game at Champaign, the Illini spotted the Cadets 26 points in the first half and then fought back to within six points of upsetting the West Pointers in what was labeled one of the best contests an Illinois team had ever played.

Success is not second-nature to Eliot. He has worked strenuously to obtain it, and now as an outstanding member of the nation's college coaches, Ray continues to rely on the "fighting heart" which has brought him success.

Chambersburg Wins 46-38 over Virginia Quintet

Virginia — Chambersburg's Red Raiders forged from behind a first quarter deficit to overcome a young Virginia quintet 46-38 here last night.

Coach Cecil McVey's host five held 13-10 edge at the first quarter. However, the visitors, playing their first game of the season, started hitting and edged into a one-point lead at the intermission.

Three other Waverly footballers, who helped spark the Lowe-coached club to an unusually good season, were given honorable mention. They are captain and back Delbert Mitchell, halfback Billy Meiers and tackle Coyner Smith. These three boys, together with Turner, were also placed on the M.S.M. all-conference team a week ago.

Lowe presented 16 letters to team men Wednesday. Others receiving numerals were Floyd Dossett, Lawrence Romang, Joe Fitzpatrick, Richard McCrady, William Staton, Jack Williams, Kenneth Handy, Frank Gldrich, Stanley Seales, Lavern Love, John Sexton and Glenn Marshall.

Wins Annulment From Beauty Queen

Miami, Fla., Nov. 23 — (AP) — George Cauten, the wife-spanking pilot, won an annulment today in his Colombian marriage to pretty Barbara Jean Cauten on the grounds the marriage never was consummated.

Circuit Judge William A. Herin, in granting the handsome 29-year-old airline pilot freedom from his publicity-minded wife, also gave the 19-year-old beauty queen her maiden name of Barbara Jean Floyd.

Special Master Walter C. Kovner concluded the nuptials of Cauten and the "Miss New Orleans of 1949" never had been consummated; that Barbara Jean never intended that she should; that the wedding was a publicity stunt — on Barbara Jean's part — and an effort by the dark-haired model to have Cauten keep her out of jail by paying her numerous bills.

Receipts were: Wheat 7 cars, corn 145, oats 25, rye none, barley 16, soybeans 25.

Middies, Cadets Hold Big Football Rallies

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 23 — (AP) — The "beat Navy" fever reached a new high for Army today as the Cadets read a letter from a famous graduate—George Douglas MacArthur—telling them "there is no substitute for victory."

The letter, written in long hand, said: "From the Far East I send you one single thought, one sole idea—written in red on every beachhead from Australia to Tokyo—there is no substitute for victory."

Victory is something the all-winning Army team and the Cadets on the plains are accustomed to but defeating Navy in Philadelphia Saturday is the big goal for any Army eleven.

All day long the footballers heard the cheers of their fellow cadets—up in the mess hall, in the barracks and in the big field house, where they held their drill today.

Most of the 3,000 midshipmen were on hand to whom it appeared, most of them took their girls to a "beat Army" hop.

Army-Navy Football Clash Rated Tops On Turkey Day Schedule

New York, Nov. 23 — (AP) — A number of traditional Thanksgiving day battles usher in the week's college football schedule tomorrow, and then on Saturday the final fall salvo of the 49 season will echo across the nation's playing fields.

Heading as usual the closing Saturday of the fall madness will be the service clash at Philadelphia between Army's unbeaten forces and a Navy team which has come strongly at the tag end of the race, which is where it counts. Some 102,000 will witness the colorful spectacle.

Magnetic Notre Dame, generally regarded as the greatest touchdown machine in the country, plays southern California on Saturday at South Bend. The Irish, stretching their schedule, will get in a final lick at Southern Methodist a week later before putting away their gear.

Penn. Cornell Meet
Penn and Cornell meet at Philadelphia in the most important of the Thanksgiving fixtures. The Quakers, undefeated within the Ivy league, can win the title either with a victory or a tie, but Cornell's slick offense has captured much support and the result is regarded as a toss-up.

Texas engages the Texas Aggies at College station in another turkey day rivalry which used to be the biggest thing in the southwest. But this time they will knock each other around strictly for their own pleasure while the fans impatiently await Saturday's collision at Houston between Rice and Baylor for the Southwest conference crown and an automatic appearance in the Cotton Bowl.

As both the Big Nine and Pacific Coast conferences wound up their schedules last week, most of Saturday's other offerings of any importance concern southern teams. Oklahoma, the nation's No. 3 outfit behind Notre Dame and California, is not expected to find the Oklahoma Aggies very tough to take at Norman.

Southern Explosion
An explosion which should shake houses for miles around will take place at New Orleans, Tulane, having recovered gamely from its mid-season mauling at South Bend, smashes into a powerful Louisiana State team, with a rich Sugar Bowl bid probably at stake.

Louisiana State, though an in-and-outter, still is the only club to have beaten Rice, and nothing would please the boys from Baton Rouge more than to hang one on Tulane. This one might just possibly get rough toward the end.

The Tarheels of North Carolina, with Charlie Justice again on the rampage, are favored to close with a victorious rush against Virginia at Chapel Hill and possibly salvage a Sugar Bowl invitation from a somewhat unhappy season.

Doak Walker and his Southern Methodists, humbled by Baylor in a free-scoring game last week, prepare for Notre Dame as best they can by playing Texas Christian at Fort Worth.

Other top games on the schedule:
Thursday
Kansas State at Missouri, Colgate at Brown, Duquesne at Chattanooga, College of Pacific at California Poly, Detroit at Wichita, Miami (0) at Cincinnati, Utah State at Utah, Virginia Military at Virginia Poly, West Virginia at Maryland, Wyoming at Denver.

Friday Night
Kentucky at Miami, Fla. (night)

Saturday
Alabama at Florida, Auburn vs. Clemson at Mobile, Boston College at Holy Cross, Colorado A. & M. at Colorado, Fordham at N.Y.U., Georgia at Georgia Tech, Kansas at Arizona, Mississippi at Mississippi State, N. Carolina State at William & Mary, Tennessee at Vanderbilt, Tulsa at Arkansas, Wake Forest at South Carolina.

LaRue VanMeter, another ex-Blueboy member, is city attorney at Falls Church, Virginia. He must have been a stickler for "rules."

An Arkansas high school football coach has finally revealed his secret formula for fielding a victorious eleven in nine straight encounters.

"It's easy," says Coach Chli Davis. "All we do is put ice packs on the boys' stomachs, between halves." Davis has a psychological explanation for the treatment. However, the idea isn't new—there was the old-time coach who put ants in his boys' jeans.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder of the Syracuse University football team is the 22nd head grid coach in Orange history.

Passing Policeman Kills Berserk Vet Who Slashed Wife

Miami, Fla., Nov. 23 — (AP) — A berserk marine veteran was shot and killed by a policeman today after he slashed his pretty wife with a broken milk bottle and wrecked their suburban apartment.

The one-year-old boy huddled in a bedroom during the fight. He was not harmed.

Dade county homicide investigator B. F. Shields identified the man as Alexander Sokalsky, 25, and said he was released from the Veterans Administration hospital in Coral Gables only yesterday. He was committed there five weeks ago as a psychiatric case.

Sokalsky's wife, Rita, 24, was in critical condition at a hospital, suffering from deep cuts about the face and throat.

Shields said Sokalsky apparently went berserk about 5:30 a.m. (CST). He toppled furniture, tearing pictures from the walls and struggling with his wife who tried to restrain him.

The investigator said neighbors heard Rita screaming and then saw Sokalsky choking her on the lawn outside the apartment just after daylight.

Man Given 12-18 Months For Traffic Death Of Mitchell

Atlanta, Nov. 23 — (AP) — A 12 to 18 months sentence was given Hugh D. Gravitt today for the traffic death of Margaret Mitchell, noted author.

A jury that convicted him a week ago recommended the sentence. Under the law he could have received a one to three year term. He will be eligible for parole in four months.

Judge Walter C. Hendrix ordered Gravitt's driver's license revoked. He set the sentence after Gravitt's attorney said the former taxi driver had nothing to say.

Gravitt's car struck and fatally injured the author of "Gone With the Wind" on the night of Aug. 11 Wednesday night. Miller is a former athlete of Westville. He took three I. C. athletes with him. The CAMEO

By Virginia Teale Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Investigating the murder of Martin Luther King, Charlie Reddy calls upon Stephanie Smith, employed at a gift shop owned by Hagar Blair, at whose home Stephanie lives. Stephanie tells Reddy about a valuable cameo which is a clue in the murder. Returning to Hagar's house they discovered Nell O'Neill, who claimed to own the cameo, murdered in Hagar's sculpture studio. Stephanie tells Reddy that she is Nell's niece.
XXI
THE amber light from what had been Nell O'Neill's favorite Chinese lamp shone down on the carnelian cameo, on the delicately carved outline of the weeping woman; the pearls and small diamonds surrounding the stone plucked the light and threw it out as a nimbus on the glass table top.
Four men were staring down at the jewel. Chief of Police Peters spoke first:
"Tom," he said quietly, "are you sure you don't want to see the girl and give back the pin personally?"
Tom O'Neill backed away from the group and sank onto a squarish teakwood bench, he clasped his hands and allowed them to hang loosely between his knees.
"Take it out of my sight," he mumbled. "Give it to Nell's niece. She wanted it bad enough to kill Nell for it, didn't she? Well, give it to her!"
Charlie Reddy took a step toward him: "Now look here, Tom!" He stopped speaking as Chief Peters gestured him to silence.
"Tom," Peters put in patiently, "we've told you the story as we know it, the business of Mrs. O'Neill's theft of the cameo—" he paused as Tom made a belligerent move. "Well, let's say her 'appropriation' of the cameo from her sister, who, as you now know, was Stephanie Smith's mother. It should be clear that the girl could not possibly have killed her aunt. The time of death precludes that. Mrs. O'Neill died in the middle of the afternoon. Stephanie was at the Three Wishes Shop all day."
Tom's face was set in ugly, stubborn lines: he shook his head: "Take it out of my sight!" he repeated thickly. "Take it away or I'll throw it in the ocean! Give it to her, put it in her murdering hands!"
Chief Peters hooked his thumbs into his Sam Brown belt and addressed the ceiling: "Squirrel cage," he grunted. "Two people stabbed. Murderer running loose. Town in an uproar. Sightseers all over like ants. Ten-thousand-dollar cameo getting tossed back and forth like a badminton bird!" He shook his head in disgust.
Lansing Trotter, who had been sitting by smoking his pipe in silence, rose from his chair: "I'll make some coffee."
Reddy sat down as Trotter walked from the room. Catching Peter's eye, he raised his eyebrows. The Chief inclined his head.
"Tom," Reddy began, "when did you last see Nell?"
O'Neill shook both fists at Reddy.
"Told you!" he sobbed. "Told you, yesterday noon! I left her here with Hagar Blair." He bent his head and his tears rained on the floor. "Didn't see her since. Not anymore."
REDDY got up wearily and began to amble around the room. Though it was only a little past midday, Tom had the shades drawn and the lamps lit.
Strolling to the other side of the patio, Reddy paused at the door of Tom's studio then crossed the threshold and glanced around the big room. Rough-hewn, clay-spattered shelves containing a jumble of glazed and unglazed pieces occupied one entire wall. There was a brick kiln in a corner of the room, Reddy walked over and opened its iron door.
Inside, resting on an iron rack, were a pair of figurines about 12 inches high and nine wide. The contours, extravagantly block-like, seemed to represent stylized female figures, the heads were bent forward in a sleeping or weeping posture. He touched one of them gently, it had a powdery surface. He knew enough about ceramic manufacture to judge that these pieces had been given only their initial firing. Bisque firing, it was called. He decided that possibly Tom had been at work on them when he received the news of Nell's death.
Rambling through the studio, Reddy came upon a large barrel containing liquid clay. Experimentally, he dipped a finger into it—the consistency was like the cake batter he used to sample once upon a time in his mother's kitchen. He wiped his finger on a clay-caked towel hanging over the edge of the barrel.
He stepped back into the O'Neill parlor and found Trotter. Chief Peters and Tom forming a close group. Tom was sipping hot black coffee, holding the cup precariously in both shaking hands.
Peters looked up: "Charlie, no use both of us hanging around here. I want you to check up on Hagar Blair. Phone. Or, better yet, take a run over there. If Hagar's present, better bring her around to the station for questioning."
STEPHANIE SMITH answered Reddy's ring almost before he'd taken his finger off the doorknob: "I was looking out the window and saw you drive up," she explained. "I'm so glad you've come—I tried to reach you by phone all morning. Did you go past the shop?"
He followed her into the cheerful atmosphere of Hagar Blair's living room: "Yes. I was worried when I saw the place closed. We've been with Tom O'Neill all morning. Did Hagar get home all right?"
"Of course I came home," a hoarse voice called from the front bedroom: "I'm here, aren't I? What's left of me, that is. Come on in and view the remains!"
